Product Description

The iPad® is so cool you'll want to take it with you everywhere you go. But first, you'll have to make sure it's protected from the inevitable scratches, bumps and bruises of the road. That's where the Kensington TriFold Folio Case comes in. It surrounds your iPad in a protective hard shell that will keep your iPad looking like new. The interior of the TriFold Folio Case is lined with soft microfiber for cushioning that will never scratch the iPad display. And the TriFold's exterior shell feels great in your hand and allows you to carry your iPad without worrying about smudging or scratching the screen.

Once you reach your destination, the TriFold Folio Case continues to shine. As its name suggests, the TriFold folds up to serve as a multi-position stand that holds your iPad securely in both vertical and landscape positions. So whether you're typing an email, watching a YouTube video, making a FaceTime® chat, or reading up on the latest news, the TriFold Folio Case will be there to make it more enjoyable. And naturally, you'll still have easy access to all ports, controls and both cameras. Best of all, the TriFold Folio Case does all this while maintaining the ultra-sleek profile of the iPad.
